

OUR PHILOSOPHY

Travel with personality

INDIVIDUAL GOALS, PREFERENCES, AND INTERESTS MAKE ONE'S PERSONALITY. IT IS ON THIS BASIS THAT PEOPLE ORGANIZE THEIR EVERYDAY LIVES AND, ABOVE ALL, THEIR LEISURE TIME. WHY NOT LET YOUR PERSONALITY INSPIRE THE WAY YOU TRAVEL? MONDIUS ENABLES YOU TO DO SO WITH A MULTITUDE OF POSSIBILITIES.

We have not reinvented travel as such. But we take pride in making your travels more personal. That is because we do not offer you off-the-rack holiday packages but individually planned tours: Tours that fit your interests like a glove because you inspired, formed, planned them yourself along with us. Together with you and our local partners we develop exactly that kind of trip you hope for – with hotels of your choice and a programme of your liking.

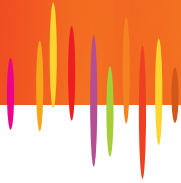

Your desires and our competence, our long-standing experience and your interests united to create a unique travel experience.

WHO WE ARE

Creating personal holidays requires personality: We are experienced travel professionals, who, after many years in the tourism industry, want to realise our passion for travelling in a personal way. MONDIUS wants to bring back a more personal character to travelling and let our guests partake in the daily life of the destination country. Not in a general or distanced way but on a personal level: because we match the values of our clients and the destinations. We succeed through tours that are tailored to your individual likings. Holidays that let you experience these very preferences in another country.

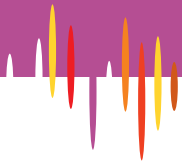

Obviously such unique travels require special preparation and planning. Here we benefit from our experience, gained in such diverse positions as head of hotel purchasing for a large tour operator, executive in charge of local partner agencies, senior product manager or resident manager in charge of destination areas throughout and beyond Europe. This is how we established our reliable contacts in a multitude of countries. We continue to cherish these direct, close relationships with our partners on location and base our cooperation with them on a foundation of mutual esteem. In our mutual interest.

Not only do we possess large experience in all matters organisational or travel law. As former tour leaders we can claim first hand experience in the practical aspects of travelling: this is irreplaceable know-how to make a tour that looks good on paper truly wonderful in reality. You will not find a brochure at MONDIUS. What you will find is travels with character: Yours – and a splash of ours.

7 STEPS TOWARDS YOUR PERSONAL TOUR

MONDIUS TOURS ARE A LITTLE TOO UNIQUE FOR A BROCHURE. THAT IS BECAUSE EVERY TOUR IS CUSTOM-MADE FOR YOU, ACCORDING TO YOUR INTERESTS AND EXPECTATIONS. WE WILL BE GLAD TO DEVELOP A NON-COMMITTAL PROPOSAL TOGETHER WITH YOU, FREE OF CHARGE.

1 GETTING TO KNOW YOU

In order to understand your interests and holiday needs precisely, we would like to find out a little more about you. In an informal and personal way. For this purpose we may come to see you. Or we could talk about your idea of a perfect holiday by phone.

2 FORGING IDEAS

Be inspired by our ideas. Or bring in your own to let us find exactly what you are looking for. For after we learn about what you are looking for, we start planning your tour programme right away. Together we consider how you will be both able to discover the beauty of a country and actively take part in its daily life. How to experience well known attractions from a different perspective and beyond that, how to make all of it a personal experience. The result: A programme to your personal taste.

3 PLANNING THE ITINERARY

This is our part: We now put together the tour and start negotiating with our local partners and specialists. What transfers are ideal, what accommodation exactly fits your conceptions? E.g. where can you help to bring in the harvest, how can you share experiences with the locals? This is how your personal tour takes shape.

4 A BEAUTIFUL VISION

Now it is time to present your MONDIUS tour. We also tell you about our experiences and what will await you. The presentation will also contain valuable information about the country and its people. If possible, even representatives of tourist boards and our local partners will be present.

5 YOUR CHOICE

Are you convinced? Then you should book your arrangement now, either directly with MONDIUS, your head of group or your travel agency. You will receive your confirmation and the security note for package tours right away.

6 HAVE A NICE TRIP

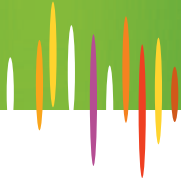

The bags are packed, you are on your way – your MONDIUS tour leader is waiting for you at your destination. He will take care of you for the entire duration of your stay, make sure that everything goes smoothly, according to plan, and be your contact person for every contingency.

7 HOME AGAIN

We would love to meet you again when you are back home. To find out personally how much you enjoyed your tour. And probably you will already have another sparkling idea for your next holiday with MONDIUS?

QUALITY IN EVERY DETAIL

SAFETY

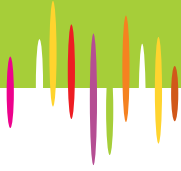

Travel safety has become a very important issue. Therefore it is absolutely essential for MONDIUS. We want you to travel relaxed, so we make sure to get the latest information on local safety conditions – amongst others from our partners on location. We will also advise you on travel insurance. You already made sure to be in good hands when you chose us for our long-standing experience and careful planning. So you can feel absolutely certain to enjoy your tour with MONDIUS in all respects.

PARTNERS AND HOTELS

MONDIUS only chooses well-known airlines. In many cases we personally know our local partners and accommodations for years. Thus we are able to recommend to you small country homes as well as exclusive, extraordinary hotels. The variety of accommodation will always be coordinated with you – according to the individual character of your trip.

TOUR GUIDANCE

Our efforts do not end when we hand out the ticket to you. Far from it! You will be welcomed by your tour leader as early as on arrival at the airport. He will take care of you for the entire duration of your stay and will be more than just contact person concerned with schedule and organisational details. Mostly your tour leader will also share your interests and present his country with the knowledge of a real and enthusiastic expert. If necessary, extra qualified guides will be called in for special sights. But even then the members of the group will stay amongst themselves – as they will on all transfers and excursions.

DURATION AND GROUP SIZE

The duration of a MONDIUS tour is subject to your conceptions. Sequence, daily planning and flight arrangements will accordingly be fine-tuned by us. You determine the size of the group. In order to benefit from travelling with a group (among others: favourable prices, exclusive transfers, entrance fees, etc.) each group has to consist of at least 10 people. But you don't travel with strangers when you travel with MONDIUS, do you?

PRICING

We offer short city trips, tours within Europe or long haul tours throughout the world – that's why prices for MONDIUS tours vary. Sometimes the exclusive will be a little more expensive, however, thanks to our contacts and experiences we are able to provide attractive offers, too. Nevertheless, all our tours are subject to the same principles. We feel committed to fairness towards our clients and partners and list all services individually in our tour specifications. Consequently there are no hidden costs in MONDIUS tours (e.g.: all entrance fees of the visiting programme are included). Beyond that, several small details are covered as well. And, at any rate, with MONDIUS you always get holidays of the very highest quality.
